

UNG | UN R of
NO TH GEO GIA
ITA

Topics include:

The Intelligence
Community

History of U.S.
Intelligence

Are you thrilled or fascinated by the field of intelligence — spying and counter spying?

Are you considering a career in the U.S. Intelligence Community? Did you know that the U.S. Intelligence Community is made up of separate agencies? Sign up for an intense and exciting five days of learning from highly qualified Master's and Ph.D. University of North Georgia instructors and practitioners from July

This Academy will

- Lift the veil of secrecy on the hidden world of intelligence exploring the history, challenges, and controversies

- Provide a context for understanding the important role intelligence has played in our nation's history and continues to play today

- Provide foundational knowledge of intelligence setting the stage for possible careers in the field

- Provide opportunities to learn from the Academy's instructors including academia, practitioners, and guest speakers

- Hear from experts that have worked with the CIA, FBI, and the former Soviet Union, KGB

Roles and Missions
of U.S. Intelligence
Agencies

Role of the Director of National Intelligence

Basic Roles and Functions of the Intelligence Field

Current Challenges to Collection Methods

Explore Intelligence
Sources and Methods of Collection

Adversarial Intelligence
Agencies

Discovering Other Sources and Types of Intelligence

Analyze the Stages of the Intelligence Cycle

Who is Eligible?

- U.S. high school students who will be sophomores, juniors, or seniors in fall

- Priority consideration given to students with a weighted cumulative GPA of 3.0 or higher

- Priority consideration also given to students who have studied a strategic language such as Arabic, Farsi, Russian, Mandarin, Chinese, Japanese, and Korean in school or elsewhere

- Georgia high school teachers may audit the course. Teachers who would like to audit the course please contact Dr. Edward Mienie